

HVRP Cooperative Agreement Grants Talking points

What is the primary objective of the HVRP Competitive Grants National Technical Assistance Center (NTAC)?

The primary objective of the HVRP NTAC is to provide general technical assistance on Veterans homelessness programs and issues to existing and potential HVRP, HFV/HVFP, and IVTP grantees and applicants, employers, Veterans Service Organizations (VSOs), federal, state, and local agency partners including state and local workforce investment boards, non-profit organizations including faith-based and community organizations, the general public, and other interested stakeholders.

Who are the organizations that comprise the NTAC?

- 1) Burton Blatt Institute, Syracuse University- - will conduct research and program evaluation as needed. Burton Blatt will also will conduct training, webinars, webcasts, regional onsite training, etc.
- 2) National Coalition of Homeless Veterans- - - will conduct technical assistance to all HVRP grantees and will take the lead on developing resume workbooks for veterans enrolled in the HVRP program

What organizations can apply for the HVRP program?

Applications for funds were accepted from non-profit organizations, including faith-based and community organizations

How much funding was awarded?

$849,890 in total funding is awarded

Burton Blatt: $499,890

NCHV: $350,000

What is the active period of performance?

The active period of performance will be for the 12 month period beginning with the date of announcement.